Missed it at Last.

Some time ago a physician called upon a young man who was ill, says an exchange. He sat for a little by the bedside, examining his patient, and then he honestly told him the sad intelligence that he had but a very short time to live. The young man was astonished; he did not expect it would come to that so soon. He forgot that death "comes in such an hour as ye think not." At length he looked up into the face of the doctor, and, with a most despairing countenance, repeated the expression:

"I have missed it—at last."

"What have you missed?" inquired the tender-hearted, sympathizing physician.

"I have missed it—at last," again he repeated.

"Missed what?"

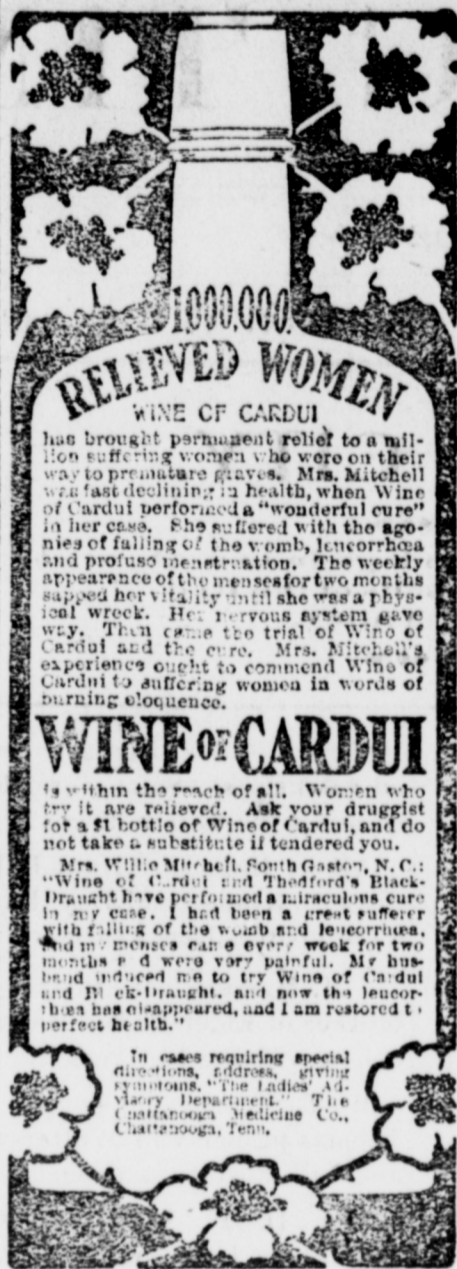

"Doctor, I have missed the salvation of my soul."

"Oh! say not so—it is not so. Do you remember the thief on the cross?"

"Yes, I remember the thief on the cross. And I remember that he never said to the Holy Ghost—go thy way. But I did. And now he is saying to me—Go your way." He lay gasping awhile, and, looking up with a vacant, staring eye, he said: "I was awakened and was anxious about my soul, a little time ago. But I did not want to be saved then. Something seemed to say to me, 'Don't put it off, make sure of salvation.' I said to myself, 'I will postpone it.' I knew I was a great sinner, and needed a saviour. I resolved, however, to dismiss the subject for the present. Yet I could not get my own consent to do it until I promised to take it up again, at a time not remote, and more favorable. I bargained away, resisted and insulted the Holy Spirit. I never thought of coming to this. I meant to have made my salvation sure, and now I have missed it at last."

"You remember," said the doctor, "that there were some who came at the eleventh hour?"

"My eleventh hour," he rejoined, "was when I had that call of the spirit. I have had none since—and shall not have. I am given over to be lost. Oh! I have missed it! I have sold my soul for nothing—a feather—a straw—undone forever!" This was said with undescribable despondency, that nothing was said in reply. After lying a few moments, he has brought permanent relief to a million suffering women who were on the way to premature graves. Mrs. Mitchell was fast declining in health, when Wine of Cardui performed a "wonderful cure" in her case. She suffered with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence.

RELIEVED WOMEN

WINE OF CARDUI
is within the reach of all. Women who try it are relieved. Ask your druggist for a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui, and do not take a substitute if tendered you.

Mrs. Willie Mitchell, South Gaston, N. C.: "Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I had been a great sufferer with falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and were very painful. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now the leucorrhoea has disappeared, and I am restored to perfect health."

In cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

raised his head, and, looking around the room as if for some desired object, he buried his face in the pillow, and again exclaimed in agony and horror, "Oh! I have missed it at last," and died.

Reader, you need not miss your salvation, for you may have it now. What you have read is a true story. How earnestly it says to you, "Now is the accepted time!"

Christ has suffered, the just for the unjust; and God's word to you is, "Repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."—xvi: 31.

"To-day, if ye will hear His voice, harden not your hearts."—Heb. iii: 7-9.

The pension situation is becoming so serious that something must be done. Already the annual appropriations amount to nearly $150,000,000.00 and there are still thousands of survivors of the civil and former wars who are applying for pensions. Besides there are now more than 26,000 claims of veterans of the Spanish and the Philippine wars awaiting action at the Pension Bureau. At the close of the last fiscal year, June 30, 1900, there were only 1,755 pensioners of these wars on the rolls, 873 being widows and 882 invalids. These pensioners were receiving $332,905, or an average of over $15 a month. There were then pending thousands of other applications, and the increase has been so heavy that the force employed at the Pension Bureau is unable to keep pace with it. The longer the war in the Philippines continues the more embarrassing will the question become. Discussing this question in the Senate, Mr. Hale, of Maine, remarked recently that every single soldier serving in the Philippines will be on the pension list within five years. "This kind of war," he said, "is most cruel and destructive in its ravages. All the soldiers now in the Philippines will want pensions, and they will be given to them."

The Louisville and Nashville railroad sent a check for its state taxes to Auditor Coulter. The amount of the check was $110,530 75.

About 1,200 cattle on the market. Very few good ones offered. Market fair but trade a little slow. Buyers claiming prices too high.

The best feeders sold at 44; yearlings at 44 to 5c; heifers at 3 to 3½c; cows at 2½ to 3½c. Cattle all sold at so much per head. We only noticed one bunch of yearlings weighed, so prices were often higher than the purchaser thought. The man who thinks the trader from the mountains does not know his business has a whole lot to learn. A fair sized crowd in attendance from over the State but no buyers from other States. Most of the trading was done in the afternoon but at about the price quoted.

A big lot of mules for sale and trade was fairly brisk. Medium mules were, we think, a little lower. Good mules were firm at strong prices, some selling as high as $150 per head. Medium mules sold at $80 to $110. Lexington dealers bought about 25 head at from $80 to $150. Other sales were made at these prices.

Horses were about as usual. Some sales of medium horses at $65 to $100. Plugs at lower figures. No fine horses sold.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

A Clear Head.

The successful outcome of any enterprise or the accomplishment of any labor, depends, first of all upon the possession of a clear head. The head that is dull, dizzy, nervous, fretful, melancholy, easily confused, or that throbs, aches and pains, is not fit for service. Not only is such a head lacking in mental capacity, but it actually weakens and destroys the nerve forces and lowers the vitality of every organ of the body.

"Notwithstanding treatment by our best physicians I suffered for years from nervous and sick headaches and got so bad that I was unfit to attend to my law practice four days out of six. I lost my appetite and flesh, had no energy and could scarcely sleep at all. I bought a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine and was relieved in twelve hours, but I continued the remedy and have scarcely had a touch of headache since."

Horses are dying in this country with a strange disease. They seem to go blind and stagger round and round and die in about from six to twenty-four hours. A Cup of Good Coffee

To get a really good cup of coffee you'll have to start back of the actual making; you'll have to look to the roasting and the grinding. In ARBUCKLES' you have a coffee that's scientifically roasted, and delivered to you with all the pores of the berry hermetically sealed. You're sure of a good cup of coffee because all the coffee flavor and aroma are kept intact until you want it. The fame of ARBUCKLES' induced other coffee packers to put out imitations of it. These imitations cost the grocer (and you) a cent a pound less than ARBUCKLES'. But don't be tempted to buy a package of some other coffee when you can get for it is actually less expensive than the cheap kind; goes further—besides being better flavored, more satisfying.

You will find a list of useful articles in each package of Arbuckles' Coffee. A definite part of one of these articles becomes yours when you buy the coffee. The one you select from the list will be sent you on condition that you send to our Notion Department a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers.

Danger of Colds and La Grippe.

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.

On Saturday last our streets were lined with horses from early morn till late in the evening. Their riders having come into town to transact business with the different concerns in the burg. It is surprising to strangers to view the large trade our village enjoys, particularly on Saturdays.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Barlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is best of all cough medicines." For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.

Mrs. Sarah McIntosh,
Vaughn's Mills,
Powell Co. Ky.

Dear mother:

I wonder what you are doing this cloudy morning, I am well. Thursday night we gave an entertainment. I wish you could have been here. The children all did well. I go to school every day, Miss Shipman is my teacher's name and Miss Peet is Vernon's teacher's name. Our teachers are very kind to us. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley are very kind to us indeed. We get nice food to eat and good clothes to wear. School begins in the morning at half past eight and at night we go to study hour at quarter to seven and come down at eight o'clock. Write soon

Almer McIntosh.

The writer of the above letter is the daughter of J. J. McIntosh, deceased, who, with her little brother, Vernon, are in the Masonic Widow's and Orphan's Home at Louisville. The spelling, capitalization and punctuation are just as it written, which shows the writer to be a bright little girl.

Of Practical Aid to Woman.

The March number of the Delineator is admirably suited to the various needs of every woman. There is something in it of a practical character for every woman who has household cares or who wishes to understand the tendency in modern styles. One of the most valuable articles is on "The Servants We Do Not Keep," by Prof. Ellen H. Richards of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. This is a subject that should interest every woman who has trouble with the domestic problem.
